PREFACE.

Our DIRECTORY contains official reports from every Diocese and other ecclesiastical division in the United States and Canada, prepared for this year's issue of the work, even from those recently erected. With the exception of three or four, all the reports from England, Ireland, and Scotland have been furnished by the heads of the dioceses there.

Relying on the support of the Hierarchy, Clergy, the Communities, and the faithful, we send it out, assured that it will meet their support.

The calends were the first day of each month among the Romans ; hence a calendar was a list of the months, beginning with their calends.

The real Solar Year contains 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes, 48 seconds ; the Common or Civil Year, only 365 days. But for the neglect of these fractions Julius Cæsar ordered an additional day to be given to every fourth year, introducing it after February 24, called in Latin sextilis ; hence these years are called Bissextile. In English they are called Leap Years. The Julian calendar did not completely rectify the error, and Pope Gregory XIII., in 1582, reformed the calendar. The days from October 5 to 14 in that year were suppressed, and, to prevent errors, the century years 1700, 1800 were not to be regarded as Leap Years. This reform, called the Gregorian Calendar, most Protestant countries refused, for nearly two hundred years, to accept at the hands of the Pope, and retained the erroneous calendar. In New York, where the Dutch used the correct calendar, the English, on conquering the province, restored an erroneous form and retained it for a hundred years. Russia has just accepted it.

The Epact expresses the moon's age on the first day of the year and is used to determine Easter, which depends on the moon, being always the first Sunday after the first full moon after the vernal equinox (March 21).

The Golden Number is the number of years that have elapsed since a new moon fell on January 1. It is obtained by adding one to the date, and dividing by nineteen, the number of years in a cycle.

From 11 times the Golden Number subtract 10, and divide by 80, subtract 1, and the remainder is the Epact.

The Epact subtracted from 24 gives the number of days from March 21 to the next ecclesiastical full moon, and the following Sunday, shown by the Dominical Letter, is Easter Sunday.

By the reformation of the calendar by Pope Gregory XIII., the year began on the first day of January, and consequently, whenever and wherever the NEW STYLE of reckoning time was adopted, then and there the year commenced on this day.

Previous to the use of the Gregorian Calendar the years had different days of beginning at various times in the same and different countries, and occasionally at the same time in the same country. In most countries it began on one of the following days : Christmas Day, the 25th of December ; Circumcision Day, the 1st of January ; Lady Day, the 25th of March ; or Easter Day, the day of the Resurrection of our Lord.

To Ascertain the Length of the Day and Night.

At any time of the year add twelve hours to the time of the sun's setting, and from the sum subtract the time of rising, for the length of the day. Subtract the time of setting from twelve hours, and to the remainder add the time of rising next morning, for the length of the night. These rules are equally true for apparent time.

Holidays of Obligation in the United States.

All the Sundays of the year—The Circumcision of our Lord—The Ascension of our Lord—The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary—All Saints—Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary—Nativity of our Lord, or Christmas.

N. B.—Feasts which fall on Sunday are not included in this enumeration.

Fasting Days.

Fridays in Advent; every day in Lent, Sundays excepted; the Ember Days (see below); the vigil of Whitsunday or Pentecost, of the Assumption, of All Saints, and of Christmas.

N. B.—1. When a feast falls on Monday the vigil is kept on the Saturday preceding. To fast consists in abstaining from flesh-meat and eating but one full meal in the day, not before 12 o'clock m. Besides this, a collation, or about the one-fourth of a meal, is allowed in the evening. All who have completed their twenty-first year are obliged to observe the fasts of the Church, unless exempted for some legitimate cause.

2. In some dioceses the Friday of the Ember Days is the only Friday in Advent on which there is an obligation to fast.

3. It has been directed by the Sacred Congregation de Propaganda Fide that the feasts of Corpus Christi and of SS. Peter and Paul be solemnly celebrated in the United States on the Sunday immediately after those days, and it is the wish of the Sacred Congregation that the bishops exhort the faithful under their charge to keep fast on the Saturday preceding the solemn celebration of the feast of SS. Peter and Paul.

Days of Abstinence.

All Fridays. When Christmas falls on a Friday, abstinence is not of precept. Abstinence on Saturday has been dispensed with for the faithful of the United States, except when a fast falls on that day. Soldiers and sailors in the service of the United States, even in barracks, garrisons, etc., are dispensed by the indult of Pope Pius IX. from the rule of abstinence, except on six days in each year—namely, Ash Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday in Holy Week, the Vigil of the Assumption, and Christmas Eve.

Ember Days.

March 2.....June 1.....September 21.....December 14

The Ember Days are the Wednesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays which occur, 1st, in winter, immediately after the third Sunday of Advent; 2d, in the spring, immediately after the first Sunday in Lent; 3d, in the summer, during Whitsun-Week; 4th, in the autumn, immediately after the 14th of September. They are days of fasting, and of great antiquity in the Church. The object of their observance is to consecrate to God the four seasons of the year by penance; to obtain his blessing on the fruits of the earth, and to beg of him worthy ministers of the Church. The ordination of clergymen generally takes place, in Catholic countries, on Ember Saturday.

INDULGENCES GRANTED TO THE FAITHFUL OF THE UNITED STATES.

On the 13th of August, 1792, His Holiness granted to all and each of the faithful of the Catholic communion, living in the ENTIRE* diocese of Baltimore, a plenary Indulgence, to be gained by all who, having made a good confession and holy communion on the days mentioned below, shall visit the parish church or any other; or, if there be no church or chapel, shall devoutly recite five times Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory be to the Father, and fervently pray for the propagation of the Catholic faith and the exaltation of the Church.

From the vigil of Christmas until the day of Epiphany, inclusively.

From the first Sunday of Lent to the second, inclusively.

From Passion Sunday to Maundy Thursday, inclusively.

From the Vespers of Holy Saturday to Low Sunday, inclusively.

From the first Vespers of Whitsunday until the last day of the Octave of Corpus Christi, inclusively.

On the feasts of the Purification, Annunciation, Assumption, Nativity, and Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, and during the whole Octaves of these feasts.

On the feast of the Apostles SS. Peter and Paul, and during the whole Octave of the same feast.

On the feast of St. Michael the Archangel, and during the whole Octave of the same feast.

On the feast of All Saints, and during the whole Octave of the same

By a decree of the Congregation of Indulgences, published January 28, 1842, in order that the faithful may gain the indulgences published by the Holy See, it is necessary that they should be recognized by the bishops, and promulgated by them in their respective dioceses.

THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

The Cardinals are the supreme council or senate of the Church, and the advisers of the Sovereign Pontiff, and at the death of a Pope they elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Bishops, Priests, and Deacons; but these orders are distinct from the orders of the hierarchy; it often happens that many of the Cardinal Priests are archbishops or bishops, and the Cardinal Deacons are generally priests. The Sacred College, when full, consists of 70 members—6 Cardinal Bishops, whose dioceses are the six "Suburban Sees"; 50 Cardinal Priests, whose titles are the "Titular Churches" of which they are appointed superiors, with jurisdiction and a right to a throne, etc., therein; and 14 Cardinal Deacons, who are appointed to the churches called "deaconries." This number, however, is seldom complete.

ARCHBISHOPS.

1886. 1887

- Nov. 28. Most Rev. Charles John Seghers, D.D., Archbishop Bishop of Vancouver's Island, murdered by his attendant near the Yukon River, Alaska. This truly apostolic man was born in Ghent, Belgium, December 26, 1839, and while pursuing his course of theology resolved to devote himself to the American mission, and entered the American College at Louvain, and on his ordination repaired to the diocese of Vancouver's Island, becoming assistant at the Cathedral in Victoria. His zeal and fidelity led to his appointment as Vicar-General, and on the death of Bishop Demers he became Administrator, and in 1873 was consecrated Bishop. In 1878 he was translated to Emesa, and became coadjutor of the venerable Archbishop Blanchet, of Oregon, who resigned the metropolitan see in 1881. When his successor at Vancouver's Island was transferred to Montana, the see remained vacant, and Archbishop Seghers, who had long desired to spread Catholicity in Alaska, was permitted to resign the archbishopric and return to his old diocese, in which the northern territory was included. He set out for Alaska with the Jesuit Fathers Tosi and Rabant, whom he left among the Stikkeen Indians, and pushed on towards the Yukon River with a single white attendant, intending to establish a mission near Nulata. On the morning of November 28 he was roused from sleep by this attendant, who shot him through the head.

- Sept. 23. Most Rev. Francis Xavier Leray, D.D., Archbishop of New Orleans, at Chateau Giron, France. He was born there April 20, 1825, and came to the United States in 1843. After theological studies at St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, he was ordained by Bishop Chauche, and became missionary priest at Jackson, Miss. He was consecrated Bishop of Natchitoches, April 23, 1877, but when Archbishop Perché required a coadjutor he was translated to Janopolis, and proceeded to New Orleans. He was promoted to that metropolitan see December 27, 1883. As his health declined, he visited Europe, but died in his native place.

BISHOP.

- Feb. 25. Rt. Rev. Augustine Maglorius Blanchet, D.D., first Bishop of Nesqually. He was born at St. Pierre, Rivière du Sud, Canada, August 23, 1797, and began his mission life in the Gulf provinces, and was then in several Canadian parishes, being parish priest of Les Cédres in 1838. He soon after joined his brother in Oregon, and in 1848 was consecrated Bishop of Wallawalla. On reaching his diocese, one of his first labors was to save a Protestant missionary, Rev. Mr. Spalding, from being killed by the Indians, as one of his colleagues had been, and, with base ingratitude, the very people whom he served at the risk of his life repaid him with calumny and falsehood. In 1860 his see became Nesqually, where he labored till 1879 to build up the church in Northern Oregon. Resigning the see, he became Bishop of Iboia, and retiring to the Hospital of the Sisters of Providence at Fort Vancouver, died there, February 25, 1887.

BISHOP-ELECT.

- Rt. Rev. James O'Reilly, Bishop-Elect of Wichita, was born in Cavan, Ireland, and was ordained at Leavenworth in 1874. As parish priest of Irish Creek and Topeka he had won esteem by his zeal, piety, and ability, and when the new diocese of Wichita was erected he was designated as its first bishop; but before the Bulls arrived he died piously.

PREFECT-APOSTOLIC AND ABBOT.

- Rt. Rev. Isidore Robot, O.S.B., founder of the Abbey of the Sacred Heart, and first Prefect-Apostolic of Indian Territory. The success of the Benedictines in this country led to the foundation of St. Meinrad's in Indiana by monks from Switzerland, and, at a later period, of a house by religious of the austere Abbey of St. Pierre qui Vire in France. Of this colony Dom Robot was the superior. He chose as his field the Indian Territory, where Catholicity had scarcely found entrance. Here he founded a house, which was erected into the Abbey of the Sacred Heart by Pope Pius IX. June 24, 1877. The Sovereign Pontiff had already, on the 14th of May, 1876, erected Indian Territory into a Prefecture-Apostolic, which had been placed under the direction of Dom Robot. He labored for ten years to organize the church, and resigning his charge in 1886, devoted his closing days to the direction of his community.

ARCH-ABBOT.

Dec. 8. Rt. Rev. Boniface Wimmer, O.S.B., Arch-Abbot of St. Vincent's, and President of the American Cassinese Congregation, was born at Thalmassing, Bavaria, January 14, 1809, and while a seminarian resolved to enter the Benedictine Order, and he did so at Metten. After his ordination he felt a strong desire to found in America a seminary for priests to attend the German-speaking Catholics in this country, and in 1846 he came over with four theological students and fourteen young men, and founded the first Benedictine monastery, in Westmoreland County, Pa., on land which has for a century been a home of Catholicity. Nothing in the growth of the Church in this country exceeds the wonderful development of this community. In 1855 St. Vincent's Abbey was erected by Pope Pius IX. and Father Wimmer became the first Mitred Abbot. His priests were invited to all parts of the country to assume charge of German congregations, for to this work especially Abbot Wimmer felt that he was called. Priors grew up, several of which became Abbeys, as at Atchison, Kansas; St. Cloud, Minnesota; Conception, Missouri; Newark, N. J.; Belmont, N. C. In time he took up also the missions to Negroes and Indians, and Benedictine Fathers from St. Vincent's were laboring on the coast of Georgia and in the woods of Oregon. Pope Leo XIII. made him Arch-Abbot in recognition of his eminent services to religion. He died on the feast of the Immaculate Conception.

CHURCHES AND CLERGY.

City of St. Augustine, Cathedral of St. Augustine, Rev. Edw. A. Pace, D.D., rector; Rev. D. Bottolacio, assistant. The congregation of St. Augustine is by far the oldest in the land, though it has had many vicissitudes in consequence of frequent changes of flag. The first colonists came from Spain in 1565, more than half a century before the Pilgrims landed on Plymouth. The Church of St. Augustine was fully organized at that early period, and it is the unique privilege of that church to have a full set of church records of baptisms, marriages, etc., from the year 1594, in a perfect state of preservation. These records are now in the city of Havana, where they were carried in 1763, at the first change of flag which made Florida pass under English rule. The population was originally altogether Catholic.

Chapel of Our Lady of Milk, formerly Nuestra Sra. de la Leche, half a mile north of St. Augustine. The site of this chapel has lately been discovered and a new building erected on the old foundations. The spot is hallowed from the fact that a missionary priest, the Franciscan Friar Father Blas Rodriguez de Montes, two hundred and eighty years ago (in 1597) was put to death there by the Indians, from whom he asked and obtained permission to say Mass, which they attended in silence, and at the end of which they massacred him. There was on that spot, in the time of the old Spaniards, an oratory dedicated to Our Blessed Lady. The chapel perished during the political struggles of Florida; it was restored some years ago by Bishop Verot, but was blown down in a gale of wind.

St. Ambrose's Parish, P.O. Holy Branch, St. John's Co., Rev. S. Langlade, rector.

City of Jacksonville, Church of the Immaculate Conception, Rev. William J. Kenny, rector. The church, with the parochial residence, was destroyed by fire during the war. The new church was opened on the 16th of Nov., 1873.

Key West (the most southerly point of Florida and of the United States), Church of St. Mary, Star of the Sea, Rev. Felix Ghione, rector. The church has received large additions and embellishments, and is the largest and handsomest edifice of the kind in Key West.

Tallahassee, capital of Florida, Church of Mater Dolorosa, Rev. J. L. Hugon, rector.

Lake City, Church of the Epiphany; Brady's Settlement, near Madison, Church of the Assumption, attended from Tallahassee.

Fernandina, Amelia Island, Nassau Co., Rev. Anthony J. F. Kilcoyne, rector. The church of Fernandina is dedicated to God, under the patronage of St. Michael, in remembrance of Father Michael de Auhon, who suffered martyrdom in this place at the time of the Indian rebellion against the Catholic clergy in 1597.

Settlement of Mandarin, Duval Co., Church of St. Joseph, V. Rev. Henry Clayreul, rector.

Church of St. John the Evangelist, Putnam Co., attended from Pilatka.

Tampa, Hillsborough Co., Church of St. Louis—in honor of Father Louis Cancer, O.S.D., who suffered martyrdom on the coast upwards of 300 years ago.

De Land, Volusia Co., Rev. M. F. Foley.

COLORED CONGREGATIONS.

The Catholic colored population of the diocese has received a due share of attention from the clergy, and the results have been very consoling in St. Augustine, where the men have organized a flourishing society under the name of St. Benedict's Colored Catholic Benevolent Association, the patron saint of the society being St. Benedict the Moor, a colored man canonized in the present century by Pius VII. Under the guidance of the Sisters of St. Joseph there are also Catholic associations in a very prosperous state among the colored women and girls of St. Augustine: St. Monica's Society, for the care of the sick; St. Francis' Society, for married women; St.

Cecilia's Society, for young colored women. The young colored boys here have lately been organized into a Society of St. Joseph. The colored Catholic population of St. Augustine is large enough to require for their accommodation an enlargement of the cathedral; this has been executed, and two new chapels of St. Monica and St. Benedict the Moor have been added to the time-honored building.

In Fernandina the colored people have a flourishing congregation. The Sisters of St. Joseph have also opened schools for the colored people not only in St. Augustine, but also in Mandarin, in Jacksonville, in Fernandina, and in Pilatka. In other places the church has not made any gain among the colored population. The very limited number of the clergy, and their yet more limited pecuniary resources, are the causes of this momentary sterility, while Northern fanatics, well salaried by their societies, have put up in many places meeting-houses for them, where these simple, misguided people are drawn together by political excitement, inflamed harangues in the name of liberty, singing, shouting, clapping of hands, dancing, confused vociferations, and other indecorous exhibitions, which they fancifully call religious worship.

THE BUREAU OF CATHOLIC INDIAN MISSIONS.

The Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions was established in 1874 by the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore, upon the recommendation, and for and in behalf, of the Catholic prelates having Indian Missions within the limits of their dioceses, for the purpose of representing before the government the interests and wants of said prelates in all matters pertaining to Indian Affairs.

It was incorporated under the laws of the United States, on June 14, 1881, being empowered thereby to receive bequests, its corporate name being "The Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions."

It was, by decree of the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore, which was approved by Rome, formally recognized as an institution of the Church, and was by that council placed under the charge of a committee of five prelates, consisting of His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons; Most Rev. P. J. Riordan, Archbishop of San Francisco; Rt. Rev. James A. Healy, Bishop of Portland; Rt. Rev. John B. Brondel, Bishop of Helena; and Rt. Rev. M. Marty, Vicar-Apostolic of Dakota. This committee has laid down rules for the government and guidance of the Bureau, and has selected as members thereof the following: Rt. Rev. M. Marty, D.D., President; Rev. P. L. Chapelle, D.D., Vice-President; Rev. J. A. Stephan, Director; Rev. G. L. Willard, Vice-Director; Rev. J. A. Walter, Treasurer; Rev. E. A. McGurk, S.J.; John Mullian; Charles S. Lusk, Secretary.

The principal work of the Bureau is the establishment of Boarding and Day Schools among the Indian tribes, and the procurement from the government of funds for their support and maintenance, which is done by means of contracts entered into between the Commissioner of Indian Affairs and the Bureau.

For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1887, and ending June 30, 1888, the Bureau has secured contracts for carrying on 33 Boarding and 13 Day Schools, providing for the support and tuition of 2,012 boarding pupils and the tuition of 620 day pupils, with an aggregate compensation of $236,854.

These schools are distributed among the different dioceses, as follows:

MOORE'S MELODIES.

THE IRISH MELODIES, NATIONAL AIRS,
SACRED SONGS, ETC., OF THOMAS MOORE.

With a Memoir and Notes, by JOHN SAVAGE.

1 Vol. 32mo.	Cloth, extra, gold and ink designs, with frontispiece,	$0.75
—————	In French morocco, full gilt.....	1.25
—————	In finest Turkey morocco.....	2.00

 A CHEAP EDITION of the same in paper is in press, and will be issued at the extremely low price of Twenty-Five Cents.

"One of the most charming books of the season has just issued from the press of D. & J. Sadlier & Co., an exquisite little edition of Moore's melodies, Irish, national, and sacred, with notes and memoir, by John Savage. Not only is this new pocket edition of the melodies a model of beauty and elegance in the style of its getting up, but great pains have been taken to make it as complete as possible. In the numerous editions that have been published from time to time in various countries, many of the most beautiful of the world-famed melodies were strangely enough omitted, as Mr. Savage remarks in his valuable notes to this edition, but all these omissions he has, we think, successfully labored to supply. All the best of the melodies are in it, and only the best, those, namely, that will secure to the Bard of Erin for all time a first place amongst the sons of song. In this edition will be found many which are not so well known as they ought to be, owing to the incompleteness of former editions."—Tablet.

"The Irish Melodies, National Airs, and Sacred Songs of Thomas Moore, edited with a Memoir and Notes by John Savage. This volume—which is a gem of typography—is designed to present in a pocket-edition the beautiful themes upon which the fame of the great lyric poet of Ireland rests. It is a remarkable fact, to which Mr. Savage draws marked attention, that most of the editions of Moore in circulation are incomplete to an extent almost beyond comprehension. An idea of this incompleteness may be obtained when it is known that of the famous Irish Melodies from eighteen to fifty-three are variously omitted in the editions of Moore which are in popular circulation.

"The present edition is complete in every particular, giving all the Irish Melodies, all the national songs written by Moore to the airs of foreign countries, and all his beautiful sacred songs. These are given with the poet's final revisions, great pains and care having been taken by the editor to present these great works of Moore in the most perfect form possible. Of Mr. Savage's literary character we need not speak in advance further than to indorse the guarantee it gives of a comprehensive memoir and just critical estimate of the 'Bard of Erin.' Concluding his notes on the incomplete editions of Moore, Mr. Savage truly says:

"To all cultivated readers this volume should be welcome as a convenient remembrancer of some of the most exquisite songs ever written; while in possessing themselves of a perfect edition of the thoughts which have shed such lustre on the home of their race, those of Irish birth or extraction in this country may echo the poet's own sentiment, that 'absence, however fatal to some affections of the heart, rather strengthens our love for the land where we were born; and Ireland is the country of all others which an exile must remember with enthusiasm.'"—Citizen.

MANHATTAN COLLEGE,

ON THE HUDSON,

NEW YORK CITY.

(The Brothers of the Christian Schools.)

The object of this Institution is to afford students the means of acquiring the highest grade of university education, by combining the advantages of the college and of the polytechnic school. The plan of studies embraces a thorough course of humanities, and both the higher mathematics and the natural sciences receive more attention than is usually bestowed on them in literary institutions.

The commercial department affords the advantages of a commercial college to young men who cannot command the necessary time to pursue the whole course, either in the classical or the scientific department.

The studies of the preparatory classes embrace various grades, so that parents who wish their children to enter the Institution at an early age may meet with no obstacle.

Ample arrangements are made for the encouragement of students who have a taste for the fine arts. Instructions are given in linear and freehand drawing, modelling, sculpture, and painting, by artists of acknowledged merit and distinction.

As the College is conducted by the Christian Brothers, it is presumed that they need hardly assure the public that the uttermost attention is bestowed on the moral and religious training of all committed to their care.

St. Mary's Academic Institute,

St. Mary's of the Woods, Vigo Co., Ind.

This noble Institution was founded in 1840 by the Sisters of Providence from Ruille, in France. The little band which undertook the arduous task of opening an educational establishment in the western wilds of Indiana was composed of six Sisters, including Mother Theodore, the foundress, whose name is held in veneration by all who had the happiness of knowing her. Many and great were the difficulties to be overcome in a new and uncivilized country, in which the resources were few, the language, customs, and manners entirely strange. But the zealous laborers, aided by those who came to join in the good work, struggled on, and before the lapse of many years St. Mary's Institute attained the well-earned reputation of being a first-class Academy. The present Academic building is pronounced by all who visit it to be one of the finest in the United States. It is located four miles west of Terre Haute, near the Indianapolis and St. Louis Railroad. It is spacious; well ventilated, convenient, and furnished with all modern improvements. It is liberally supplied with philosophical and astronomical apparatus, charts, globes, and everything conducive to the attainment of knowledge. The pupils have access to a well-filled library of choice and standard works. Every facility is afforded for attaining proficiency in music, painting in oil and water colors, etc. Special attention is paid to forming the morals and manners of the pupils. Simplicity of dress is enforced by rule. The extensive grounds surrounding the Institute are beautifully laid out, and offer every inducement to the young ladies to engage in healthful exercise.

Parents may rest assured that pupils placed under the Sisters' care receive all the attention that kindness can suggest.

A Card from His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, March 26, 1885.

The Xaverian Brothers, whose Novitiate is established in this diocese, are doing much good, especially in the cause of Christian education. They have need of more laborers to co-operate with them in their work of charity and religion. I earnestly exhort the reverend pastors to aid the Brothers by encouraging vocations to their community.

✠ JAMES GIBBONS,

We sincerely thank the reverend clergy for their kindness in recommending young men to enter our congregation. A continuance of like favors is very respectfully solicited.

PRIESTS

OF THE

Society of Mary,

COMMONLY CALLED

MARIST FATHERS, OR MARISTS.

This Religious Order, much as it has already been blessed by God's merciful Providence, does not yet count very many years of existence. Founded in the Diocese of Lyons (France) by an humble and zealous priest in the beginning of the present century, so well and so justly called the "Age of Mary," the rising Society was applauded and encouraged by Pope Pius VII. in 1821, and formally approved by Gregory XVI. in 1836. A further sanction and blessing of the Holy See was bestowed upon it in 1860. His Holiness Pius IX. finally approved its constitutions by a solemn decree in 1873, thus adding to the testimony of time and experience the blessed seal of his unerring authority.

According to their constitutions, the members of the Society of Mary unite the active with the contemplative life, and the name they bear sufficiently tells under whose patronage and in whose spirit they have resolved to devote themselves both to their own sanctification and that of their neighbor, particularly the poor and those most destitute of religious comforts.

The primary object of the Order is to promote the sanctification of its members, by securing to them the advantages of the religious life, under the special protection of Mary, who is constantly set before them as the model of the humble hidden life, whether in community or in the exercise of the works of zeal.

These works, which form the secondary object of the Institute, may be reduced to the four following heads: The Training of Youth in Colleges, that of Ecclesiastics in Seminaries, the Home and Foreign Missions, and Preaching, with the other functions of the Sacred Ministry in the places of residence.

Besides the practice of perfect religious obedience, which ought to constitute their peculiar character, the Marist Fathers profess an especial devotion to the Holy See, the greatest respect for episcopal authority, and in the discharge of the Sacred Ministry endeavor to live in perfect harmony with the secular clergy.

Their costume and regimen is that of pious, modest priests, without ostentation or luxury. There are no outward austerities prescribed by the rule, but to compensate for this a particular spirit of interior mortification and self-denial is required.

To be sent on missions among savage nations requires, on the part of the subject, his own personal application, besides decided proofs of virtue and the other necessary qualifications. The English-speaking subjects are especially destined for the establishments in Great Britain and Ireland, America, Australia, and New Zealand.

The Order likewise admits young men as Brothers Coadjutors (3), who, after due probation, take, like the Fathers, the three perpetual vows of religion, and belong to the Institute by an equal right, though with a different object.

They are received on the same conditions, except as regards science and Holy Orders, as the candidates for the priesthood. The qualifications especially required for them are a love for labor, and the knowledge of some trade or acquirement conducive to the material interest of the community.

For further particulars, or for admission, apply to the PRESIDENT, JEFFERSON COLLEGE, ST. JAMES, LA.; the Rev. Marist Fathers, Algiers, New Orleans, or to THE REV. MARIST FATHERS, St. Michael's, Parish of St. James.

PITTSBURGH CATHOLIC COLLEGE

OF THE

HOLY GHOST,

Pittsburgh, Pa.

This college is conducted by the Fathers of the Holy Ghost. It is duly incorporated, and has full power to confer academic degrees. The curriculum is so arranged as to supply a complete liberal education in Classics, Mathematics, Modern Languages, and Sciences; but special facilities are afforded such pupils as desire to direct their attention exclusively or chiefly to business pursuits. Actual Business, Shorthand Writing and Typewriting are taught.

In each division of subjects there are several distinct classes, graduated to suit the different ages and capacities of pupils. A special diploma is given at the end of the business course. Detailed monthly reports are forwarded to parents. The pension for ordinary day pupils is $5 and $6 per month, according to the classes in which they are. At an extra charge of $6 per month boys are admitted to dine at the college at noon and prosecute their studies until 5 P.M. A limited number of half-boarders and full boarders are also received.

Besides the lay students, the establishment also includes

SCHOLASTICS.

These students live apart, and are such as, believing themselves called to religious and missionary life in the Society of the Holy Ghost, pursue here a full collegiate course preparatory to entering on the study of Philosophy and Theology. Young men are admitted to probation in this department on presenting satisfactory testimonials.

In addition to the above, young men who feel a vocation to the religious state alone, without wishing to advance to the Priesthood, may enter the Society as

LAY BROTHERS.

These enjoy all the advantages of religious life. They aid the Priests of the Society on the missions in the various establishments. Satisfactory testimonials and certain qualifications are required before being admitted among the Lay Brothers.

Nativity Play; or, Christmas Cantata. By Rev. Gabriel A. Healy, Rector of St. Bernard's, New York. 1 vol. octavo, gilt edges, printed on fine plate paper, bound in English cloth, with original ink and gold design, and containing beautiful illustrations—the eight tableaux which appear in the play. Net, $1 25

Even as a gift book this volume would prove most acceptable at holiday-time. But it is only when the Cantata is acted—when we hear its lines spoken amid the realistic effect of fitting stage scenery, and perceive groups of living figures forming its exquisite tableaux—that we fully realize its beauty. This Nativity Play is a boon to every pastor, for it enables him to afford recreation and instruction to both the old and young of his flock by having it acted in his parish.

History of St. Monica. By M. L'Abbé Bougaud, Vicar-General of Orleans. Translated from the French by Rev. Anthony Farley. With beautiful steel plate. 1 vol. crown 8vo. Net, $1 50

This is the first complete biography of St. Monica that has been written in English, and the many who have cherished a devotion to this great saint, whose conditions of sanctification were those of ordinary domestic life, will welcome this well-written life of their chosen saint.

The book is beautifully gotten up, and worthy in all respects of its contents. "This is a charming volume. Not only is it a faithful history of the great saint, and of the greater saint whose mother she was, but it gives a vivid representation of the life of these remote days. The English is worthy of the original—which is saying a great deal."—Catholic Times.

"This beautiful book should have a place in every household."—Catholic Quarterly Review.

"One of the most interesting books that have issued from the American press in years."—Pittsburgh Catholic.

History of Ireland, for Young People. In words of one syllable. By Agnes Sadlier. Copiously illustrated, with illuminated cover. Price..... $1 00

This is a beautiful work, as entertaining as any fiction, and possesses the additional merit of being written by the talented young Catholic Authoress who has already proved herself to be a true friend of the little ones.

Octavius. A Tale of the First Century. By A. T. E. 1 vol. 12mo, English cloth. $1 50

"This book has an elevating tone; the historical and ethical parts of it are deeply interesting."—Ave Maria.

"This tale, which is founded on the miracle worked by our Saviour in raising the daughter of Jairus from the dead, is intensely interesting."—N. Y. Tablet.

"The author's plan is a very striking one."—N. Y. Current.

"This is really an interesting book, full of good things, and well worth a place in the library."—Evening Gazette.

Reminiscences of Fifty Years in Texas. By John J. Linn. With four illustrations. 1 vol. 12mo, English cloth. Net, $2 00

"This is a most interesting work; well worthy of perusal. It possesses the charm, which history always lacks, of presenting the great events which go to form history as they appear from a personal point of view. No State in the Union has so varied and picturesque a history as Texas, and Mr. Linn has taken an active part in its busiest scenes. The volume will prove a valuable addition to any library."—N. Y. Tablet.

Rose Parnell. A tale of the Irish rebellion of '98. By D. P. Conyngham, LL.D. 1 vol. 12mo. English cloth. $1 25

"The title alone of this book will enlist for it many readers."—Ave Maria.

"'Rose Parnell' is in the best style of this popular author."—N. Y. Tablet.

"The heroine of this story is no ideal character," says the author in his preface; "she is simply the embodiment of all the noble and patriotic qualities which have characterized the Parnell family down to the present day." It is strongly hinted indeed that her character is closely drawn after that of the late Miss Fanny Parnell. "Rose Parnell" is gracefully written, and replete with intense devotion to Ireland."—N. Y. World.

Maurice Tyrone; or, A Fair Saxon. A novel. By Justin McCarthy. 1 vol. 12mo, English cloth. Price..... $1 50

"As a historical writer, Mr. McCarthy has achieved a permanent reputation. 'Tyrone' is a charming novel, as powerful as it is entertaining."—Albany Sunday Press.

"The author of this novel is almost if not quite as well known on this side of the water as in Great Britain. His clear, picturesque style, and his great power of observation combine to make him one of the most popular of living English novelists."—San Francisco Monitor.

"This novel is well worth reading."—N. Y. Dial.

English cloth extra red edged. 75c.

Travels through Europe, Egypt, Arabia, Palestine, and Syria. By the Rev. Eugene Vetromille, D.D. One volume crown 8vo, English cloth.....$2 50

This is a faithful record of the observations made during many months of travel. The author's style is easy and somewhat quaint, and conveys much desirable information in a short space. He is a philosopher, too, who never loses his own temper, and is careful to advise all who contemplate travel to take with them a great store of good temper likewise.

"The portions of Father Vetromille's work which bear upon the Holy Land are peculiarly interesting."—N. Y. Tablet.

Flowers of Christian Wisdom. By Lucian Henry, late Scholar of Universities of Paris and Nancy. With a preface by the Right Hon. Lady Herbert Lea. One volume 32mo, cloth, red edges.....75 cents.

"Some one or other says that he is no common benefactor who shrewdly gathers up from the world's manifold literature its words of finest wit and maturest wisdom for our entertainment, instruction, and inspiration, and certainly the author of the valuable little work before us deserves the golden crown of gratitude for the painstaking labor he has undergone in culling, for our gratification, this charming bouquet of intellectual flowers. We earnestly commend it to the attention of our readers."—Irish American.

A Thought for every Day in the Year. By Pere de Boylesve, S.J. Translated from the French. 32mo, English cloth, red edges.....75 cents.

"This little volume is designed as a book of meditation for those who have limited time at their disposal after morning prayer. . . . We may mention that it is considered unequalled for its purpose."—Freeman's Journal.

"The great advantage of this book is its brevity. Five minutes are more than sufficient for each day. Every Catholic should have one."—Catholic Times.

The Story of Ireland: A Narrative of Irish History, from the Earliest Ages to the insurrection of 1867. Written for the Youth of Ireland by Alexander M. Sullivan, M.P. Continued to the present time by James Luby, of New York. Illustrated with numerous engravings. 1 vol. 8vo, English cloth.....$1 50

The Family. By Rev. Auguste Riche. Translated from the French by Mrs. J. Sadlier. Twenty-fifth edition. 1 vol. 16mo. Paper covers, 25 cents; cloth, 60 cents; in paper, per 100 copies, net.....$15 00

This little work, a compendium of a much larger one on the same subject, will, it is hoped, commend itself to the favor of all who desire to see the family maintain its rightful position as the centre and nucleus, as well as the nursery, of Christian society. In an age like this, when the family—especially in this country—is threatened with dissolution, it is well that the people should be reminded what it really is, what it ought to be, and how important its integrity is to the well-being of society. All this and much more concerning it in its past as well as present state, is clearly and plainly set forth in the very cheapest form, in order to insure it the extensive circulation its importance deserves.

The Devil ; Does he Exist ? and What does he do ? By Father Delaporte. Translated from the latest French edition by Mrs. J. Sadlier. Twenty-fifth edition. 1 vol. 16mo. Paper covers, 25 cents; cloth, 60 cents; in paper, per 100 copies, net.....$15 00

"We never had any doubts about the existence or the potency of his satanic majesty, and we presume there are very few good Catholics who have; but there are a great many people, even inside the pale of the Church, who regard possession by the devil as a disease which died out with the downfall of Judaism, and who, by their attendance at spiritual seances, table-turning parties, and even by their expressed belief in magnetism, and consultation with fortune-tellers, seem to be totally oblivious of the potent fact that the prince of darkness has the heaviest hand on the electrified table, and shuffles the cards of the clairvoyant. Even if these performances could be explained on scientific principles or the art of jugglery, it is manifest that the impressions conveyed to the minds of those ignorant and stupid people who place faith in such necromantic science are capital weapons in the hands of the arch-enemy of mankind to work its destruction. Let all such people read this excellent little book, and learn therefrom what the renuncio diabolum of their baptismal vows imposes upon them."—N. O. Star.

Wonders of Lourdes. Translated from the French of M. de Segur by Anna T. Sadlier. Cloth..... 60 cents.

The once lonely grotto in the Pyrenees, near the bright stream of the Gave, is now the objective point of pilgrimages from all parts of the world. Thus every year the grotto of Lourdes becomes more interesting in view of the new miracles which are worked there. But no work that has been or can be written can treat of that wonderful shrine more graphically than does M. de Segur's work, which has been honored by a special brief addressed to the author by his Holiness, the late Pope Pius IX., and has now reached its seventh edition.

"Independently of the visions and wonderful cures, which every reader is welcome to believe or disbelieve, this book is curiously interesting for its picture of the life and ways of the simple people of those French valleys into which, we trust, King William's Goths will never penetrate."—Irish Citizen.

"An absorbing book."—Rochester Union.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

WE have borne, without any attempt to reply, the constant charges of Hoffmann Brothers, of Milwaukee. A few years ago they issued a circular in which they asserted that we had systematically refused to make improvements in our DIRECTORY which had been called for by the Most Rev. Archbishops and Right Rev. Bishops.

Then they issued a Directory, based absolutely on ours, copying the slightest details of type and arrangement. The only improvement was to put in a few pages of Catholic Memoranda to imitate our extended notices, and to replace the Ordo in English by a calendar which is certainly amazing. It does not follow the Roman Missal or any other official calendar. It gives Saints never before heard of, and certainly Saints whose office has never been granted to this country. Year after year we are asked, in Hoffmann's Directory, to commemorate a Saint Paschal Babylon !

Our DIRECTORY was undertaken by our house at the request of many members of the Hierarchy, and has always given reports as furnished officially from the several dioceses. We have made constant improvements, and acted on every suggestion coming from any source. Our aim has been to make it thoroughly useful to the Catholic hierarchy, clergy, and people.

We have been content to do our work faithfully and honestly, and have not attempted to advance our business by slandering our neighbors. That style of morality we leave to our opponents.

PAPER IMITATION OF
Stained Glass.

Testimonials from Catholic Clergymen.

REV. C. J. ALTEN, now of Stevens' Point, Wis., writes of our paper put on windows at Stockbridge, Wis., Sept., 1885, and at Sherwood, Wis., in June, 1886: "It is as good to-day as when first put on. . . . Your method of decorating bare windows supplies a long-felt want. . . . Your paper, if varnished as directed, really sticks and preserves the color in an astonishing manner. . . . I shall use it again here if I can find time to do the work, which I find quite interesting."

REV. A. E. BUECHLER, of St. Martin's Church, Piqua, Kansas, wrote, May, 1887: "Some time ago I got your paper for my church windows. I put it on myself and am highly pleased with it. Everybody who sees it likes it. A friend of mine was here the other day and expressed his astonishment at my fine stained glass."

REV. FATHER MEINULF, of Meier's Grove, Stearns Co., Minn., wrote, May, 1887: "The paper you sent me has been used on the vestry room windows, making most beautiful designs. It pleases me very much, and I hope it will stick."

REV. N. NEUSIUS, of Capioma, Kansas, wrote, Sept., 1887: "The windows look very nice, and are a good and cheap improvement to the church."

REV. AUG. ALTHOFF, of Chatawa, Miss., wrote: "The Paper Imitation of Stained Glass received a few days ago proves to be a great success. I can promise you, already, orders for three Catholic Churches in this neighborhood."

REV. VAL. M. SCHMELTZEN, of High Hill, Texas, wrote, Sept. 10th, 1885: "We had a great day last Tuesday. Rt. Rev. J. C. Neraz, of San Antonio, and eleven clergymen were here, and each and every one was delighted with the windows. I had to give your address to each one."

REV. RICHARD K. WAKEHAM, S. S., of St. Charles College, near Ellicott City, Md., wrote, May, 1885: "It is all that you claim for it, and more than one would imagine it could be, before trying it."

REV. T. E. SHERWOOD, of Denison, Texas, writes: "About three years ago I ordered paper from you for a large church in Jefferson, Texas, which gave perfect satisfaction, and I now try it again."

REV. FATHER HENRY E. MOORMANS, of Brookhaven, Miss., wrote, March 19th, 1887: "We put the paper on and succeeded splendidly. The windows look magnificent."
